

The Path Of The Shaman

Workshop Series – 294 N. Winooski Ave., Burlington VT.

Course: Huna Adventure Shamanism with Katherine Veilleux (<http://www.aloha-works.com/>)

Time and Date: June 26, 2010, 1pm – 4pm

Description: The focus of this workshop is to use the seven principles to create harmony in the three aspects of ourselves and as a result, in our relationships with others. You will learn about the seven principles and how to use them in your day to day lives, the three aspects of self, and the four levels of reality. You will experience a guided meditation for transforming blocks and you will also learn Dynamind which is a technique you can use on yourself and others to release pain and resistance on a physical, emotional and, spiritual level.

Fee: $45.00 (check or money order, please make payable to Katherine Veilleux)

Name: _____

Telephone: _____

Email: _____

Please mail this form to: Katherine Veilleux, 289 Buck Hollow Road, Fairfax, VT 05454
She can also be reached at 802-849-2766 or veilleuxkm @ myfairpoint.net

This workshop is presented by RainWater Center, PO Box 251, Winooski VT 05404
www.rainwatercenter.org/alexander@rainwatercenter.org

Please note: RainWater Center supports and promotes shamanism as well as other alternative/complimentary health therapies but does not guarantee nor govern the subjects taught in these workshops nor suggests that these therapies are meant to replace traditional health practices. If you have any major health concerns or questions, you should contact your family doctor for advice before registering for this workshop.